JOYFUL, JOYFUL WE IMPLORE YOU....

How good it is to be part of such a caring and dynamic community of faith! This is something I hear again and again from members and friends of our church. So much about our church makes us smile and gives us joy. We do know how to laugh together, to celebrate together, to serve together and even to weep together. What a blessing!

One of the things that seems a little harder for us to do is to talk about the “dreaded” topic of money. Very soon, we will engage in the time honored practice of the annual meeting of our congregation and, among other things, vote on a budget for the coming fiscal year. We will also hear a report from our Capital Campaign Consultant Tim Scott, who will share with us his broad impressions of our strengths and areas for growth as we seek to step into an ambitious Capital Campaign. Additionally, you have recently received a dispatch of important information about the annual Intentional Giving Campaign, letting you know where the church’s “household” budget stands and inviting you to pray about and ponder that. That’s a whole lot of talk about money in a short period of time, isn’t it?

Sometimes, on quiet afternoons in the church building (rare as they have become), I enjoy going into the sanctuary for prayer. I like to walk around the sanctuary and look at everything in it, thinking of and thanking God for all the people that have ever had anything to do with the church being here. The luminous and vibrantly colorful stained glass windows, the old ornate chairs on the chancel, the plaques describing loving dedications, the organ that Leif gave us, the pew cushions, the figures from Zimbabwe—all of these items, and many others, represent the many stories of people who have nurtured and been nurtured by this congregation and its presence. Particularly touching is the lovely 225th anniversary quilt bearing so many beloved names of current day members and friends. What will people think as they look at those names 100 years from now? Will the quilt still be displayed there, having been cared for over the four generations between now and then? Will people look up and say: wow, those folks really loved their congregation and cared for their church building, and we are the grateful inheritors of that legacy?

Jesus, it turns out, talked a great deal about money. His teaching about material wealth can be summed up by two words: radical sharing. Very few people ever chose to live up to the standards that Jesus laid out with regard to money, which are, in short: 1. Sell all you have; 2. Give the proceeds to the poor. How we respond to such a powerful and radical call is between each of us and God, but we also know that Jesus told an admiring parable about a widow who gave a very generous gift to the temple treasury. If the church is doing good and healing work in the world as God calls it to do, it is worthy of consideration for generous giving. With this parable as encouragement, the church leadership asks not that you sell all you have and give the proceeds to the poor, but offers a more modestly sacrificial invitation to all of us to give generously to support the annual operating budget of the church, and later in the summer will ask all to give consideration to taking part in an upcoming Capital Campaign.

While many of us may be quite weary of being implored to give money, we need not be. For if we have given prayerful, appreciative consideration to this invitation to be part of strengthening the ongoing work of the church and the building of its healing and caring legacy for well into the future, we have participated in something great and rare and beautiful: the vibrant life of a healthy church. We need only to prayerfully consider this remarkable invitation, weigh the information we receive, and give to the church in a way that makes us feel JOYFUL, not put upon; GLAD of heart, not worn out; and EXCITED to be part of some thing great, not weary of hearing budget talk. The conversations we have about church finances are a privilege, and taking part in this process is a source of joy when we decide to give just the right amount.

Joyful, Joyful, may we all give in ways that feel just right!

Blessings and peace,

Mary

And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets of broken pieces and of the fish.

John 6: 42-43

VISUAL AND DECORATIVE ARTS MINISTRY

We will be holding an Arts and Crafts Workshop this coming September and hope to finalize the plans during our meeting on May 27th. So far we have instructors for Scrapbooking, Decorative Painting, Needlework, Beading and Flower Arranging. If you have a special skill and would like to hold a class, please let a member of the Spiritual Life and Faith Formation team know.

Two new beautiful silk arrangements have been created by Rachel White and now adorn our sanctuary. Thank you Rachel. As flowers begin to bloom in your gardens this summer, please keep the church altar in mind.

Arlene Leyare, Coordinator

BOOK REVIEW

"Letters To My Aunt" An Alzheimer's Chronicle is a must-read for anyone who may be caring for a parent or other loved one with this dreaded disease. Intensely honest, soul-baring series of letters, that when written, were never intended to be published. The aunt who received them, about her sister, kept them all, and they became this book. Highly recommended, it made me extremely grateful that I did not have to deal with this with my own parents.

SERVICE AUCTION TO BE HELD ON JUNE 2

The fabulous SERVICE AUCTION is set to return on Saturday, June 2nd at 6:30 p.m. Proceeds will be used during our July Zimbabwe trip to provide needed educational and medical support, and to purchase materials to renovate three classrooms for our work camp. Questions? Call Connie at 340-2116, Ann at 522-8963 or Cathy at 522-8489. Thank you, thank you, thank you for your generous and much appreciated support. The members and friends of the First Congregational Church of Wakefield are THE BEST!

COFFEE HOUR HOSPITALITY

Interested in providing warmth and welcome to our church family, friends, and visitors? We have a place for you! We are looking for each member of our church family to assist with providing a bit of welcome during coffee hour. Perhaps it is pouring coffee and tea, providing a simple tasty treat, or assisting with clean up. Enjoyable coffee hours depend upon each one of us. We are looking for 4 – 5 people to assist with our twice a month events.

We have 24 coffee hours a year and with a group of 5 people assisting at each one, it would require 120 volunteers. If most of us signed up for 1 -- or at the most 2-- coffee hours during a 12 month period, we would be all set! You don't bake? Something as simple as cheese, carrot or celery sticks are perfect! Sign-up sheets will be available during coffee hours. For more information, please speak to Ginny Schweitzer, Connie Littlefield or Penny Ellis.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Operating Budget (Non-restricted):
July 1, 2011 – April 30, 2012

Income:	$113,034.39
Expenditures:	$115,599.91
Net (Loss)	$ (2,565.52)

Restricted Funds balance at 4/30/2012: $2,183.52.

The 2011-12 fiscal year is quickly nearing an end. Even though expenses still outpaced income as of the end of April, the financial picture has improved. April was a huge improvement over March. This trend will hopefully continue and we will be able to end the year in the black.

As always, June means it is time for the Annual Meeting. This gathering is an example of our Congregational heritage at its best. We, the members, are the ones who run our beloved church and your voice needs to be heard. There is no better time than this annual event when we learn about and vote on various church matters including the proposed budget for the next year. Hope to see everyone there.

APRIL CLEAN-UP DAY

I would like to thank the following people for joining me and making the day awesome:

The chandelier was clean & sparkly Thanks to : Curt & Mary Cook, George Ackerman & David Haag

The Sanctuary was polished, dusted, washed & vacuumed by Jo Szirbic, Jan Fairchild, Janice Brejow, Linda Petkunas, Connie Littlefield, Darlene Clement

Maurice Hatch for cleaning behind the church and removing the old torn sand bags.

Dave Schweitzer, Randy Stewart & Michael Colcord. They cleaned up the yard all around the church & cleaned & organized the shed that houses the oil tanks.

Rob & Connor Nelson for putting in new post & repairing the sign in the front yard.

Rob & Connor also installed new sump pumps that were donated by Titia & Gijs Bozuwa.

What a blessing to have a crew of dedicated church folks.

Ann Bilodeau, Building & Grounds Coordinator

STEEPLE VIEWS ANNIVERSARY

This issue marks the 4th Anniversary of the Steeple Views online and 160 now get the news by email or on the church website. This has resulted in substantial savings for the church. We now use 75% less paper and postage than 4 years ago which has saved us more than 36,000 sheets of paper over the past 4 years!

By reading the newsletter on our computer screen, we are helping to reduce paper use, reduce waste (when we recycle after reading), reduce the fuel costs in delivering the mail and delivering paper to the transfer station. Besides that - you get the news quicker (the email version is delivered sooner) and you will not misplace your copy! It'll be right there online and easy to find! Thank you for helping cut costs and lower our carbon footprint at the same time. Good stewards all around!

If you haven't given us your email address so we can email you the news, please do so by emailing the editor at steepleviews@gmail.com and we will add you to our email list.

WONDERFUL – WORRISOME – WHAT NOW?

This is an anxious time for the Stewardship Ministry! All the planning and dreaming about our church life and growth by our wonderful ministries for the coming year are directly related to Intentional Giving responses.

As of this moment, there is both wonderful news and worrisome news to report. Let me explain: Wonderful: pledges have exceeded last year's total at this point. And this was done on several fewer pledges. What a blessing! New Intentional Giving is ALWAYS welcome at any time throughout the year, but this is the moment when decisions must be made about what we can and cannot afford.

On the Worrisome side: balancing the budget (income and expenses) is tough to do without making sharp reductions in key places – even with increased giving, there is a shortfall. As a congregation, you have authorized Leadership Council to bring a budget to discussion and vote at Annual Meeting on June 10th. Our Ministry Coordinators have scaled back their dreams. Leadership Council has made hard decisions in reducing staff time. And still, it is not enough.

What now? The budget belongs to us all. Think of it as God's household budget. How will we structure the money that is promised through Intentional Giving to do the most good ... and how will we feel about what we can and cannot afford? It's time to pray, listen for God's plan for us and our church. Please contact me with any ideas you may have as soon as possible!

GET READY FOR OUR SECOND ANNUAL MINISTRY FAIR!

On Sunday, July 22, we will hold our Annual Ministry Fair, at which time all the members and friends of our church will be invited to consider the forms of service they'd like to engage as part of the congregation. To prepare for this, we invite everyone to begin prayerful consideration of their gifts for ministry and their particular interests. If you'd like to learn more about your own spiritual gifts, please speak with Jan Fairchild about completing a Spiritual Gifts Inventory, which will help shed light on the ways in which God has gifted you for service and participation in the life of the church.

Our Calling and Discernment Team is at work already preparing for the fair. George and Donna Ackerman, Jan Fairchild, and Mary James welcome your ideas for ministry and your questions and comments as we get ready. We have learned a great deal from our first year in our new structure and hope to bring a number of improvements to the experience of the Ministry Fair. It's exciting!

Please plan to be in worship on the 22nd--it will be a joyful worship service, and a time to truly spread your wings as a lay minister in the life of the church.

Rev. Mary

ANNUAL MEETING

JUNE 10!

SPIRITUAL GIFT AND THE CHURCH 1 CORINTHIANS 12

“When people know their spiritual gifts, their connection to Christ and the church can be deepened. When the church utilizes the spiritual gifts of all people, the ministry of the church becomes wider.” (Deep & Wide: Hospitality and the Faithful Church) Our new structure is grounded in our belief in the Priesthood of All Believers. We are all called to ministries based on our spiritual gifts.

Many of our members and friends have completed spiritual gift inventories and prayerfully considered the ministries they are called to share. Following worship on Sunday, June 3, there will be an opportunity to discuss spiritual gifts and review inventories as they relate to our new organizational structure. If you have not completed an inventory, instructions and forms will be available.

This meeting will be beneficial preparation for the second annual Ministry Fair on Sunday, July 22. For additional information, contact Jan Fairchild.

MESSAGE FROM CHIKANGA

Here is a message from Munorewi Manono, who is a head deacon at Chikanga Church and a teacher at a local elementary school in the city of Mutare. I wanted you to see first hand the people who are benefitting from the donated items on the shipping container. Thank you all for helping make this a success! The term Mama or Mai is a way of addressing older women with respect. Ann, Maggie, and I are making a special stop at his church on Sunday evening, July 8th, as he is organizing a prayer meeting for us.

Connie

“Mama thank you for always thinking of us and my class. A new subject was introduced at school and pupils are now doing Home Economics but we do not have sawing machines to assist pupils with. If can send one it will be of importance. Writing materials and any material for ART. I am teaching Grade 5 and I have a big class of 59 pupils 21 girls and 38 boys. Be free to send anything for the class even toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap and shoes. Some come to school bare footed yet we are in winter here. Some do not know how to brush teeth. Waiting to meet you on the 8th. Are you sleeping in Mutare? Hope you has started packing your things and don't forget the notebook. Rudo nerugare (Love and peace to you.) MUNO

NEWS OF THE WIDER CHURCH

At the recent Carroll Strafford Association meeting, attended by Rev. Mary, George and Donna Ackerman, Elizabeth Fogg and Connie Littlefield, we learned some interesting tidbits from the NH Conference Report, the status of the Outdoor Ministries program, and initiatives within the C-S Association.

- The NH Conference is made up of 139 local churches in eight Associations. Our churches have an average worship attendance of 67, the average church school enrollment is 37 and the average membership is 159. Interesting indeed!
- We learned the smallest association, the Sullivan Association, which has 8 active local churches, is considering disbanding. If they do so, these churches would join another association.
- Outdoor Ministries will be under the management of the Maine Conference for the next three years. The director of the Maine Outdoor Ministries program will direct our NH program while based in Maine. An associate director will be hired and will be based at Horton Center. Staff will be moving back and forth between Pilgrim Lodge in Maine and Horton Center for programming. Horton Center will be undergoing some major renovations to meet accreditation by the American Camp Association. Many weekend and week day work camps will be held to repair our beloved Horton Center.
- The CS churches have collaborated on interchurch activities this spring – The Faith Club discussion held at the Dover Parish Church under the leadership of Ellen Lankhorst; MLK Service Day of Learning under the leadership of Rev. Mark Rideout, and a commitment to the Heifer Project as an Association. Churches are looking for more opportunities for collaboration.
- The Maranatha Church of Madbury has been instrumental in responding to the needs of the Indonesian Community regarding immigration issues by forming an Indonesian Family Emergency Relief Fund. This fund provides immediate small grants to assist families who may need gas or meet other short term needs as they travel to Manchester to appeal judicial decisions regarding deportation. The CS Association voted to add $1000 to this fund. An Immigrant Rights Rally was held in Dover in early May to bring attention to the larger community.

George Ackerman took over the role as moderator. Our next CS Association meeting will be held in the fall, along with the NH Conference Annual Meeting. Delegates are needed to represent our church. Please let Rev. Mary or Connie Littlefield know if you are interested in serving in this very worthwhile and meaningful capacity!

THE PARISH HELPERS

The Parish Helpers will meet again on June 14 at 1 p.m. Plans for the Annual Picnic and the Village Fair will be discussed. We'll enjoy a delicious dessert (as always!) and have some fun sharing stories with each other. All women of the church and community are welcome!

The Treasure Shop is due to open at the end of June. We will soon be cleaning up and preparing for the opening. Donations are always welcome! Please contact President Ginny Schweitzer (522-9593) or Treasure Shop Coordinator, Carole Doughty, if you have items to donate.

Our annual Raffle is underway. Parish Helpers are asked to sell raffle tickets for each of the three prizes this year: A mink teddy bear made by Edna Wilson, a hand-made braided rug by Catherine Britton, and a painted ironing board by Arlene Leyare. Tickets will be available at the Treasure Shop, at coffee hours, or from any Parish Helper until the drawing at the Parish Helpers Fair this summer.

RELAY FOR LIFE

As Team Captain for the Poor People's Pub team for the Relay For Life at "The Nick" in Wolfeboro on June 23—24, I am looking for team members, or just interested people, to support our effort on behalf of the American Cancer Society. I will be selling luminaries bags and raffle tickets. Raffle items: your choice of Pub Bucks-$80!!, "Sanbornville Eats" - $200 value for local eateries, Ladies Tubbs Snowshoes-$200 value; Jennifer Cullen artwork up to $200; and a child's Adirondack chair, painted super-cute, priceless!

I would also like to invite you to attend the Relay: the opening ceremony at 2 pm—come for dinner - lots of good stuff, or the luminaries ceremony at 9 pm - an extremely moving experience. Also, if you, or someone you know, is a cancer survivor, please come for the survivor reception immediately after the first lap. There will be refreshments and lots of give-aways. Thanks so much, and hope to see you at the Nick on June 23rd.

Z TEAM NEWS

So many exciting events going on!

The "Put on Your Sneakers for Dzika" Decathlon was a great success! Eight teams raised $835 with additional donations coming from the Rochester Rotarians. This money will be used to continue the Dzika Primary School renovation. And, ahem, the Z Team with Donna and George Ackerman, Jo Szirbik, Lynn Watts, Gina Golden, Connie Littlefield, Ann Gehring, Chris Gatchell, Ann Bilodeau and Jane Ostrye came in first place with an over the top score on the water balloon toss. Honorable mention goes to the Z Team All Stars led by Dave and Katie Schweitzer which included Michael Colcord, Randy Stewart, Max Gehring, Alissa Eaton, Ean Colcord, Kaylee Colton, Matthew Steer and friends. Other FCCW participants and fans included Cathy Koukal, Rev. Mary, Patty Golden with Coralina and Cecilia, and Maureen Steer. Thanks everyone for the tremendous support for such a great cause!

We are packing like crazy – all types of clothes, school supplies, reading books, textbooks, medical supplies, toothbrushes, toothpaste, blankets, fabric, sewing notions, knitting and crocheting supplies, wheelchairs, bicycles, athletic supplies, SHOES, an amazing set of theological commentaries and more! Someone donated an emergency rescue board so that our friends in Dzika no longer have to carry an injured or ill person 9 kilometers on their shoulders. A generous dentist donated a case of toothbrushes and a case of toothpaste. Ann Bilodeau's niece, who works at the Winchester Hospital in Massachusetts, secured $500 worth of medical supplies. Ellen Lankhorst approached Walgreens and they agreed to donate $200 worth of medical supplies. Spaulding High School and Tuftonboro School have donated textbooks. Two of our members and a friend in the community have been working diligently refurbishing three bicycles to send. Maggie Mason, who went barefoot for 2 weeks last summer to raise the plight of our Zim friends, has received at least 500 pairs! WOW! So many of you dear friends have responded with a warm and loving heart with such wonderful donations.... A young teen who provided backpacks full of school supplies, a young mother with a beautiful array of baby clothes and baby toys, warm jackets and sweaters, women's dresses and undergarments, men's suits and ties, bride and bridesmaids dresses... the list goes on and on and on! We will be accepting donations until June 3rd and then we turn our attention to invoicing our boxes and preparing for the shipping container packing on Friday, June 22nd.

Last call for the Service Auction on Saturday, June 2nd! The auction begins at 6:30 with opportunities to bid on fabulous services – Red Sox tickets, delicious dinners, kayaking and cruising around Pine River Pond, delicious baked goods, wonderful handcrafted items, handyman services and much, much more! Please call Cathy (522-8489) or Connie (340-2116) if you have questions! Delicious guilt free desserts will be provided. All proceeds will benefit Zimbabwe Mission Projects!
